Sella Ronda, Selva, Dolomites, Italy

February 8-16, 2019

7 nights/6 day skiing

Luxury Accommodations/Breakfast & dinner included

Price: $2,550 per person

Post-ski trip to Venice February 16-19, 2018 - $525 per person

There are many ways to experience the Dolomites mountains and the traditions of the four Ladin valleys of Badia, Gherdëina, Fascia, and Fodom. But no doubt the best way is to ski using the Sellaronda ski lift carousel. The natural beauty of this mountain world will catch your eye and take your breath away. You will never forget that vast ski area with its gourmet restaurants overlooking the valleys. Sella Ronda is a circular ski route leading around the mighty Sella massif and offering 26 km of downhill trails in a single day. Whet your appetite for the culinary discovery of the four course Italian dinners, included in the package and après-ski with delicious Tyrolean beer. Explore Selva mountain village, its history and traditions with friends from the Ski Club and join a post-ski trip to Venice for the Carnival.
